Baha Mar is a family-friendly destination that meets all your food and fun needs in the Bahamas.

Baha Mar is a luxury destination that is less about waterslides and more about the welcoming flavors and paradise of the Bahamas.

At its center is the family-friendly Grand Hyatt, which also hosts the largest casino in the Bahamas. The landscape is bookended by the residential-style luxury resort Rosewood on one side and by the clean and chic SLS on the other. There is no shortage of places to sleep here, from luxe oceanfront suites with private verandas to two-bedroom villas with their own staff. But even if you come for the beach and the beds, you may end up staying for the food.

The recently opened Katsuya is the hottest reservation in Nassau. A pairing of master sushi chef Katsuya Uechi's fresh takes on Japanese classics with design icon Philippe Starck's sleek and sultry interiors come together for a truly unique sushi restaurant. There are a few dishes exclusive to this outpost of Katsuya, one being an off-menu crab rice served in a 350 degree bowl and cooked tableside. Another is a coconut cream-topped conch salad served in its own coconut shell.
